Dear Val:

The Office of Data Processing would be happy to assist FAA in deploying a new Automated Air Traffic Control System for the United States. We can provide you whatever information we have on computer software and hardware availability, especially with regard to IBM's VM/SP Operating System. In addition, we run IBM and Amdahl mainframes as well as several other vendors' peripheral devices. We keep extensive failure data, which we would also be willing to provide, on both the software and hardware.

Please contact [   ] to arrange for this technical exchange of information.   STAT

Sincerely,   STAT
